Beyond Ramadan

Let us take time to plan how we are going to carry forward the spirit of Ramadan. What can we do to heighten our commitment as Muslims and to continue to live some of the blessings we experienced in Ramadan? First of all we need to be realistic, can we continue to get up in the middle of the night to pray or to recite the Quran? Ramadan is a special grace, a gift from Allah in which we are helped to do all these extra things. Fasting is done for the sake of Allah, but fasting also helps and trains us to go on and do extra things for Allah's sake. And what better way of carrying on the spirit of Ramadan than to do what our beloved Prophet (peace be upon him) did. If you would like to continue the exercise of fasting for Allah's sake you don't have to wait until next year, you can do what Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) suggested. The Prophet Muhammad said: "Whoever fasts Ramadan and follows it with six days from Shawwal it is as if they fasted the entire year." (Muslim) If you can do this extra fasting you will straight away be carrying on the good deeds of Ramadan and you will be imitating the best of men (peace be upon him). You may set yourself the goal of trying to recite more Quran, And if you find reciting the Quran difficult, just listen to these words of our Prophet (peace be upon him): "Verily the one who recites the Quran beautifully, smoothly, and precisely, he will be in the company of the noble and obedient angels. And as for the one who recites with difficulty, stammering or stumbling through its verses, then he will have double reward." (Al-Bukhari, 459 and Muslim, 798) Just as Ramadan is over, keep steadfast on the 5 daily prayers. The prayer is the foundation of Islam, and without it, we have no real faith. So there are many ways we can take forward those great deeds we did in Ramadan. Instead of letting Ramadan become just a happy memory, let us try instead to carry the spirit of Ramadan into the rest of the year. By doing just some of them we will become better Muslims, In sha' Allah.
